

Team workers

Resources needed: Newspapers, magazines, journals, flipchart paper, marker pens.

Activity

Your group has been tasked to put together a front page of a newspaper. Each member will have:

- An editor
- Creative director
- Reporters

You must decide as a team who will have each role. The editor will have the final decision on the page headings and layout. The creative director will place together the articles. The reporters will search for 'News' to be used from the resources given. The whole team must decide on the name for your paper.

You will have _____ minutes to complete this activity.

Your group will present their finished page to the other groups and identify your target audience.
